

LISA TYDINGS SCHOLARSHIP

To recognize a graduating, college-bound Hilton High School Senior with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher who is planning to become an elementary school teacher.

Special Education teacher Lisa Tydings left an indelible mark on the lives of many Village Elementary students in her tenure here. Lisa set a wonderful example as a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, friend and teacher during her twenty-one years at Hilton. Her courageous earthly battle against breast cancer ended in August of 2020, but her spirit of faith, love and hope lives on in her family, friends, neighbors and the children whose lives she touched through her work and volunteer activities. Lisa was a leader who inspired others to lead, too. Her “let’s do it” attitude has spurred challenged students to be their best. Her desire to have a scholarship given on her behalf shows her devotion to have an ongoing positive effect. That’s the kind of life she led...and the kind of person she was.

The Tydings family administers this scholarship through the Hilton Education Foundation.
